PORT ARTHUR PROM WITHIN

A Late Resident's Story. A German, interviewed at Corlon, gave the following information regarding Port Arthur to a representative of the Times o

When the siege of Port Arthur became more determined, it was decided to request all the civilians to leave. Those who elected to stay behind were obliged to submit to nected with the hospital. At the present moment there are about 60 toreigners in the city and sixty ladios. These included the members of a big German firm-Kunst and Albars -who had enormous interests in the Far East. The headquarters of the Russian bank have been removed to Harbin for safety; but most of the assistants of the bank had escaped to Cheloo from Pigeon Bay in a junk. All the horses in the place have been commandeered for military purposes at 120 roubles a head-for good or bed, Mr Donath says there are 85,000 well-trained troops in Port Arthur, including the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th, Regiments, while the artillery who man the forts are said to be exceptionally good. Mr Donath remarked on the powerful physique of these Russian soldiers, of whom he had taken numerous photographs. He had watched them bathing and it was nothing but a display of muscle, Moreover, be added, 'the Russian soldier is exceedingly moderate in his manner of living. He can exist on bread and cucumbers, with a little wodks, and his tes, of course. In Port Arthur there are large military stores and the magazines are just crammed with 1787 provisions. I should say that at the least, without starving, there is sufficient food in Port Arthur for another seven or eight months. I also think there is plenty of ammunition there, too. Port Atthur is so SUITE of 2 ROOMS, on the Ground- well protected by its situation that, in my floor of the Annex, suitable for opinion, it is impregnable, both from the sea and from the land. From the sea side it is stronger.' Mr. Donath drew a very pleasing picture 1788 of General Stoeseel, who is now the chief man in Port Arthur. He is a for tall man, with a long grey beard, entirely unaffected, and so kind to everyone that he is called the 'Father General' by the people there: He is frequently to be seen going round to cheer them up and has a good word for everybody. His wife, too, is an active woman. Of General Kuropatkin, also, he intertains the greatest admiration and Athinks the fact that Russia is now taking the offensive a most significant fact. He mentioned that General Kuropatkin had with his own hand shot three members of PACKING, OLD STORES AND STORE the Russian Commissariat for supplying rotten food. Of Alexeisff he says that the Viceroy is a man of enfeebled health and a > droppers." But what was worse, Japanese women, who pretended not to know a word of Russian, were admitted as servants into Russian bouseholds. Even the wife of General Stossel possessed one of these nocomplished lady-detectives, though no doubt she was unaware of her true character.

of two cities, the old and the new. Elaborate preparations had been made to inaugurate the modern portion, which had been planned on a grand scale in St. Petersburg. It was not really ready for occupation when the war broke out; and now further progress is impossible. But there the inhabitants are now living. Fire-proof caves have been constructed and Whenever a Bombardment becuts the bivilians berake One Lot of OROWN LAND at Tolkwa themselves to these primitive shelters and beguile the time with cards and other > devoted to the improvement of the old city of Port Arthur, the results would have been more satisfactory. The situation of the new city is unfavourable, because it is surrounded by shallow water. At present it does not seem that the naval investment of Port Arthur is very thorough, for, witha little care, it is easy, thinks Mr Donath, for blockade runners to get asfely from 80421,000 Chefoo to Pigeon Bay—a night journey of about 13 hours—whence supplies can be taken overland to the balesquied city. In conclusion, it may be added that our informant is convinced of the plamate victory of the Russians. He estimates that the war will last another twelve months at least, and that next spring and summer the Rossian triumphal progress will commence.

This, of course, was before the war, As is well-known, Port Arthur consists amusements. But on the whole the atmosphere of the city is very depressing. Mr Donath thinks that if all the money which has been spent on Dalny had been victim to chronic rhenmatism and other ailments. We have all heard a good deal about Japanese spies and their ways. Of their cleverness Mr Donath had something to say. It was very foolish on the part of the authorities, he observed, to have countenanced the presence in Port Arthur of so many Japanese photographers and barbers. They swarmed there and he had no doubt they proved most effective eaves-

MAIL STEAMER DEPARTURES.

The following table is a chronologically arranged list of mail steamer LIGHT making the Northern side of the sailings to Europe, America, Canada, and Australia. Coast ports, Manila, and Japan are not given, for steamers are constantly sailing for those ports. All the American steamers call at Japan, and the majority of the Australian boats call at Manila, and, in addition to those vessels, special steamers run there. and a depth of 18 feet at low water spring The departure of every steamer is subject to alteration. The P. & O. mails usually reach London in about 28 days, and the French and German in about 28 or 30 days.

HONGKONG, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1904 AN ULTIMATUM. Our special cablegram to-day contains statements regarding Great Britain's action in connection with the outrage by the Baltic fleet upon the Hull trawlers, which, if true, indicate that the nation is upon the very verge of war, But whether the 'understandings' of the Daily Mail can be accepted as accurate—or even partially accurate in the circumstances-is questionable. What it has to say is practically that Great Britain has issued an ultimatum to Russia in which she insisted that Russia's acquiescence to her previous demands for the punishment of the culprits responsible for the firing upon the 2.30 p.m.-Auction of Japanese Curios, trawlers and a pledge that there would not be a repetition of the outrage, should be lodged, in London by yesterday afternoon. When one great nation speaks to another great nation in such measured terms there is no mistaking should be any possible doubt upon the point Great Britain, according to the Mail, has gone so far as to inform Russia that failure to fully comply with the demand will mean that the Channel fleet will intercept the Baltic squadron and request it to return to its base. No one can doubt for a moment what the result of such air action-if it comes to pass-will be if the Russians are are out at sea-especially when one of them is bound upon such an important mission as is the Russian fleetthe slightest mistake is sufficient to involve the units in violent action and plunge the respective nations into bloody warfare. Whatever the result might be Britishers the world over, whose blood has boiled at the studied outrageous and insulting actions of Russia, will rejoice if Russia has at last been threatened. The mistaken attitude of calm benevolence which has been adopted by Great Britain in the pastto be mistress of the seas, made her the mitting) :laughing stock of certain continental March ..... of mailed fist diplomacy for the velvet gloved type in the present case to Song ....... 'The song you sangtome' a fight left in us if necessary. There can be only one result if we come into collision with the Baltic fleet-it will be annihilated. But the grave problem is opened up when we commence to consider what will happen after that. Will France come to the assistance of her ally? Under the circumstances it is doubtful. France is in no mood to lose blood and treasure in battling for such an unscrupulous power as Russia, uch that she must enter the lists it questionable if she will do so with any ieart. RECENT CORONER'S INQUEST. To the Boltor of the CHINA MAIL Horoxone, Oct. 28.

Six, -With reference to the letter signed. Justice published in the Daily Press of this morning to the above subject, it seems to me that the conduct of the Coroner in rejecting the evidence given against a certain European constable is exceedingly unfair, insertoh as the deceased coolie himself had declared in front of Mr Gomperts, while sitting as Police Magistrate, that he had been kicked several times by a European policeman. As this is a very bad example in the eyes of both European and Chinese of administering ju tice which the British nation is so proud of, it is to be hoped that the authority concerned will look into the matter without delay, so that the real culprit may be produced and duly punished as warning to others that unnecessary violence should never he resorted to unless called for. In the meanwhile I hope that Capt. Badelsy will not lose a single moment in trying his best to have the offender treed out and punished according to the merits of the case. Judging by the evidence given by the witnesses at the inquest, the deceased had been undoubtedly assaulted by a European in Police uniform, and as our Police Force is not a very large one I see no The heavy weather has resulted un reason why further attempts should not be made by the head of that department to hunt out the black sheep.

Although there were a number of recruits in the ranks they had paid attention to the directions given them and acquitted themselves admirably. Naturally enough, such praise coming from the Commandant was appreciated by the men, and the subsequent evolutions that were undergone this morning were performed with a spirit which showed that the entire corps were. endeavouring to merit the remarks applied to the guard.

LONDON LETTER.

(From Our Correspondent.)

London, September 23. The brief respite we have had from the flood of the political oratory has come to an end at last. On Wednesday evening Lord Rosebery addressed public meeting at Lincoln to begin the winter campaign. A statistical fiend has estimated that during the next five months there will be about five and a half million words uttered by political declaimants on the tariff question and the Earl of Rosebery began the game with a modest contribution of about 50,000-and said astonishingly little naturally, not one word about Ireland. To gather sticks to beat the Government he strayed as far as Tibet and even Wei-hai-wei, but one or two obvious home-grown shillelaghs he left severely alone. Among other things Dixon, Lumsden, Heath, Major Chichester, he said there were now three parties, Burnie, Ward and Airy, with Pearse and labelled Balfour, Chamberlain and the Bird as reserves. Liberal party. I fear that he is wrong keeper he would be included, but in his here and there are no less than nine. absence H. Hancock is a good man behind Let me catalogue them. Tories, four-Tariff Reformers of the Balfour Chamberlain varieties respectively, Free food unionists, and the small Home Rule, or 'Devolution' party under Lord | Dunraven; Liberals three, -the small but elect throng of Liberal Tariff reformers, the Roseberyites and the Ban- with three wins, the Police being second nermaniaes; Irish, two (who have as healthy a hatred of each other as any two English parties), the O'Brienites and the Redmond party. Even with classification. I am omitting Ulster Protestants, the Antiritualists, and the Lloyd-George gang, so that I fear Lord Rosebery's modest three must grow to a dozen. No one need regret such a subdivision, for testifies that there is growing up a healthy independence among politicians who are no longer content to herd like sheep and to vote like sheep but will soon claim the possession of something approaching intellectual individudity. When they attain it, party government will be doomed. A consumation devoutly to be wished !

The election of the week is in the Isla of Thanet. The Kentish men have to decide between a Radical of the name of King and Mr Harry Marks, and I do not envy them. In 1890 some one pub. P. Jordan, A. G. Lang and A. S. Kemplished a statement that Mr Marks had thorne, three-quarters; J. Clark and robbed and described a woman, and had E. R. Hallifax, A. Boyd, J. Hanron, F. SPORTING NOTES.

The coming Interport cricket matches are the main topic in sporting circles just now, and the selection of the team to represent Hongkong is awaited. In the practice match played on Wednesday good bitting form was di played by Lumeden, R. Haucock, W. Dixon and Lieut. Blair, while six bowlers on each side were tried. Airy (2 for 10) Harris (4 for 40) and J. T. Dixon (1 for 10) were the most successful.

The selection committee will have some difficulty to choose the best XI, as there ate so many good men. As batamen the brothers Hancock, P. M. Heath, Lumsden, Col. Hosse, C. M. G. Burnie, T. S. Smith and W. Dixon have strong claims, while J. T. and W. Dixon, Major Chichester, Airy, Bird and Pearce are candidates on their bowling. Ward's fielding alone should get him a place. ### NOTES FROM CANTON.

(From a Correspondent.) CANTON, October 27.

THE FRENCH BAILWAY IN YUNNAN. It is stated that the French are attempting to secure coolies here for the building of a railway in Yunnan. Therefore the French Consul (whether of Yunor Canton is not clearly stated) has decided to send out appeals throughout the Two Kwangs, with a view to secure the needed labourers. Those who have been down there and returned affirm that the climate is quite suitable for the coolies of these provinces. Before effect can be be referred to the foreign office at Peking. from which orders will be issued to all the high officials concerned to consult and decide what shall be done.

CANTON ADOPTING ELECTRIC LIGHT. Genghia Khan's son Hulagu was personally engaged in a series of Persain wars about this time. Amongst his generals was a very distinguished young Chinese named Kwoh K'an, and in his Manzi General, Fan Wen-hu, who had been attack apon the Ismaelitish or Assassins' city of Guirdouth, in 1256, he is recorded to have used kia p'ao, which means ballistae, or 'scaffold catapults.' After thirty years experience of Chinese wars, the Mongols Artillery if they had known of it; no extant Chinese drawing of the 'cart p'ao' or 'fire p'ao' in use previous to the days of Kublai Khan leads us to suppose for one moment that these machines were anything more formidable than powerful slings or springs by which the sharp recoil of a strong sapling or a piece of tim-

Even so late as 1265, when Kublai had already been five years on the throne, we are in- who was wounded in 1272, and who had formed that 800 of the 'p'no-constructors were ordered up to Peking in order to build a grain fleet. Hence the 'artillerymen' of that time were nothing but in genious carpenters and brawny labourers. It is in the year 1271 that we obtain the first genuine glimpse of true Artillery, and its origin is most unmistakably foreign, certain cities in Ho Nan. At no stage, and and almost certainly Arabic or Arabo-Persian. The story, as told in the Yuan Shi, or 'Mongol History,' is this. In 1271 Kublai sent an envoy to demand p'ao artificers from his relative Prince Elebuke. This can only be Kublai's brother Arikhuga. who, after an uncosssful rebellion, had made beaco with Kublai in 1264, and had then gone west to attack Algu, then in possession of Jagatai's Western Asia Empire-some foreign writers give 1266 as the date of Arikbuga's death; if that is really correct.

then Kublai may have been ignorant of the fact. At all events, in reply to the Great Khan's demands, two skilled artificers were sent by some one to wit, Arabtan of Mosul, and Ismeel of Shiraz, both Mussulmans. These men, carrying with them their wives. adopt the electric light. This, it is said, will families, and whole belongings, proceeded eastwards by stage express, and, arriving and suppression of thieves. Now, seeing the same year, were at once assigned that winter is approaching, several streets suitable official residences in Poking. the Chinese say, they will be lighted even guns of the larger size, with which they se frontier wars, and in 1529 the first Frank Mussulman (the 'Saracen' of Marco Polo) was then at the height of his power, it is probable that it was he who advised this importation from Persia. It was found that the new guns were very economical in generating their power, and moreover, they carried their stones very far. The siege of Fan-ch'eng and Siangyang Fu (Marco Polo's Sa-yan Fu), had then been going on for some time, and the two Mussulmans were ordered to the front in 1272. In that year there is specific mention of a Chinese General, named Li Ting, and a Nüchen General, both in Mongol employ, having been wounded by p'ao outside the besieged cities-it is not stated by whose p'ue they were wounded. In the year 1273 the distinguished Captain-General Bayen (men- Cleaning my pipe, I broke a straw tioned by Marco Polo) 'ordered an attack to be made on Fan-chieng with the Mussulman | When out and spake an ancient rook, guns.' The biography of the Onigour General Alibaya states that in 1273 the siege of Sinug-yang had already been going on peared with his "new p'co system," and was accordingly taken to the front. means of the guns he made, Fan-ch'ong was soon taken by storm, "and then we turned our attention to Siangyang. In 1281 the enerentered placed in chief command of the naval force of 100,000 men just then leaving Nagpo for Japan, advised that 10,000 Chinese, 2000 horses, and some Mussulman p'ao artificers should take part in the expedition; but Kublai refused, saying: 'How on we the p'oo on board warships ? co Polo's 'Abscan', died in the th moon at Ningpo; and soon after all available Mussulman gun workers from the

The second in command, Alaban Mar Hwai region and other provinces were ordered to Pien-liang (modern K'al-leng Fu). After the annihilation of his Japan Armada, Kubiai seems to have though better of the naval gun possibilities, for in 1283 we find him teending the Musselman guns made at Peking, together with the artificure, Chang Lip, etc., to join the eastern expedition; and again in 1285, fifty Museulman p'ao handa were added However, no second expedition ever did start for Japan, and therefore no Musaulman guns were ever used against the Japanece. In 1287 General Li T'ing, the one kong. served in 12o1 against Japan, accompanied Kublai's personally conducted 'expedition against Nayen (as described by Marco Accompanied by ten men, be carried tire p'ao into the enemy's ranke : when the p'co went off, the enemy actually killed each other in their panic, and bolted Nayon was captured.' Finally, in 1 23 the Decachiliarch in charge of the Musul man p'do workers was sent on service ' to in no place, is there any precise description of these Mussulman p'co, which still remain a mystery to us. The Mongols were driven from Chins in 1368, and the military history of the succeeding Ming Dynasty has the following important remarks :-The ancient so-called p'no were all contrivances for casting stones. The Early Mongola obtained some West Asian phip for the attack upon the Nüchen's city of Ts'ai Chou (sic), and then fire was first used, but it is not recorded exactly how, nor were they much used after that. When the second effective Ming Emperor conquered Tonquin (1407-1417), we got hold of the divine mechanism gun and cannon plan, and the 'divine mechanism camp' (Still the name of the Manchu Artillery Headquar ters) was established for practice with the guns. Some were made of copper others of iron. The larger were fired from a cart, the lesser from a stand or stake. They were freely placed along the north frontiers, apparently for protection against the Mongols. In 1448 'firearms, 'literally are mentioned in connection with a revol in Fuh Kien; and in 1449 there is sotus mention of 'ganpowder tubes, 'capable of being fired thrice in a few moments and carrying a distance of three hundred paces. In 1464 a nine-barroled weapon of some kind was used by the Chinese in the Barmep'ao were constructed : they were also called by the old name in tsiangkiln, or big generyears 1520 and 1542, is a well-established fact. ### WHAT CAUSES RHEUMATISM

AND WHY DR WILLIAMS' PINE PILLS FOR PALE PROPER CURE IT.

THE FREDERICK TURNER, of East Bireet, Bridgtown, Cannock, England, is a noted local musician, and a man great intelligence. His narrative (con-Simed by the Walsill Observer newspaner) of how Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale | Swing. Prople bured him of Rheumstic fever -- the worst form of Rhoumstism-is therefore worthy of , pecial attention, especially as it chows what Rheumatism is, and how it is

Mr Frederick Turner of the Bridgtown Cannock Bund, who was oured of terrible Rheums ism by Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

In 1887 Mr Turner, then in the Army, Decutur, U. S. torpede-best, for Mania. had his first attack of Rheumstic Fever Dale, U. S. torpedo-bost, for Manila. Bive years ago he had a second and worse atta k. It pulled him down so much that his friends thought to was in a Consump. tion. His clothes bung about him like a skelp on. He was very ill and miserable. Glory, British battleship, for Singapore. Of old, Mr Turner would have been Occar II, for Sourabays. treated with emb ocations and liniments Haimun, for Swatow, rubbed into the skin. But Medical Science Huhu, for Swatow. has advanced now, and we know that Pakhoi, for Chefoo. Rheumatism isn't an external complaint. Legaspi, for Manila. Microscopical and chemical researches have shown that Rhoumatism is caused by an acid in the bleed. Many people have a little of this Lactic Acid in the blood, at d known nothing of it until they are exposed to cold and damp. Then, for some reason the soid begins to affect the joints or muscles, and what we know as an attack of Rheumatian, takes place. The acid stiffens the joints and draws up the muscles. Mr

Tu ner said that he felt this effect. During my illnors ny fl gers were all drawn up, and I was told I should never Misses Bearden and Minter, Messrs got them straight again; but now they are Harris, J. Ramsay and Ridde. F as straight as they should be. Many a man Malta : for Shanghai, Mrs Wilkins have I idvised to take Dr Williams Pink Pills, not only for Rheumatism, but for other silments

F. r it was Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People which cored Mr Turner's Rheumstiem. These pills cure by making new blood. New blood gives the sufferer Bingo, Mr Barretto and family, Mrs Allyn, strength to throw off the poison. This same new blood which Dr Williams' Pink Pills make cures many other diseases besides Rheunatism. It cures aremia, for instance ; it staves off the danger of threatening Consumption; it cures Nervous disesses, Pits, St Vitus' Dance, Peralysis, Sajiro Oshima, Mr Joseph J. Dunbar, because blood is the food of the nerves, and Rev. Bro. Gabriel, and Rev. Bro. Michael. Dr Williams' Pink Pills are the food of the blood. Mr Turner's account of his cure is insteresting in itself and important because said, 'feeling very tired and wesry. One to Hongkong. night while I was playing in the Band I felt I had exught a bad chill. Doing some work in the garden afterwards aid not improve matters. Next morning, when . attempted to get up to go to work, I simply found it impossible to do so. A friend came in and gave me a good rubbing, but all to no purpose, and the various remedies recommended to me I tried, but all without avail. Tarrible were the pains I suffered, and I can only liken them to a dog gnawing at me. People used to say I was going into a consumption. I looked | For MANILA .almost like a skeleton; my clothes hung about me. I could not turn over in bed at times, but as soon as I commenced to take Dr Williams' Pink Pills I began to get better. Now I feel in perfect health, and free from all pain.

And how many bottles did you take sitogether?" · Five ; but I felt better after I had taken the first bottleful. I then began to walk about and after the second bottle to go out. From the time when I took the last done of the fifth bottle until now I have not felt the pain. I am stronger and better now than over I have been in my life."

Wonderful as this statement is- 'I am stronger and better than I have ever been in my life '- from a man who has twice had Rheumatic Fever, it is only what we hear from thousands of people, once miserable. ansemic invalids, whose blood has been renewed and purified by Dr Williams' Pink Pills. The way these pills improve the appetite and enable people digest their For KOBE .food and get good from it, is wonderful, and can only be understood by those who have tried them. They make all the difference in the world to the way a person feels. They put new life into them. And they are quite safe. They are not a purgative, but, on the contrary, they For AMOY, STRAITS & RANGOON,strengthen. The only precaution necessary is to avoid being supplied with a substitute. The genuine pills siways bear For WEIHAIWEI & TIENTEIN .-Dr Williams' name, and if there is any difficulty in getting them, they may be had direct by post from Dr Williams' Medicine Company, Holborn Viaduct, London, for 2s. 9d. a bottle, or 13s. 9d. for six bottles.
